Job Descriptions

Studio Dance Instructor

ETD Dance Studio is seeking a dedicated and experienced Studio Dance Instructor to join our team for the upcoming season. This role is ideal for an educator who is passionate about youth development, committed to excellence in training, and aligned with ETD's mission of impacting lives through dance.

Position Overview:

We are currently looking for an instructor with a strong foundation in Ballet to lead classes for beginner and advanced beginner dancers (ages 7–12). Additional teaching opportunities may be available for our younger programs, including dancers ages 3–7, which are structured as combo classes.

Responsibilities Include:

- Deliver high-quality, structured dance instruction in alignment with ETD's training standards
- Teach and manage classes in a positive, engaging, and disciplined environment
- Prepare students for in-studio performances and seasonal productions
- Collaborate with staff and leadership to support program growth and student success

Qualifications:

- Previous experience teaching children in a studio setting required
- Strong technical background in Ballet
- Experience in Jazz, Tap, and Hip Hop is highly preferred
- Ability to teach combo-style classes for younger age groups is a plus
- Professional, reliable, and committed to student development

Commitment Requirements:

- Availability to commit to the full dance season
- Participation in all required performances, including:
 - Winter Showcase (First Week of December)
 - End-of-Season Recital (First Week of June)

At ETD, our instructors do more than teach—they mentor, inspire, and help shape the next generation of confident, disciplined, and empowered individuals through the art of dance.
